

ADVISORY ON COMPETENCY-BASED WAGE FOR DOMESTIC WORKERS

This Advisory is being issued pursuant to Republic Act No. 10361 or "Batas Kasambahay" which establishes the terms and conditions of employment and promotes the welfare of domestic workers towards decent employment and income.

Specifically, the purpose of this Advisory is to guide household employers and domestic workers who will voluntarily and mutually agree to adopt a competency-based pay scheme in setting and adjusting the pay of domestic workers over and above the applicable minimum wage.

I. Coverage

This Advisory covers all domestic workers and their employers as defined in R.A. 10361, to wit:

"Domestic worker or Kasambahay refers to any person in domestic work within an employment relationship such as, but not limited to, the following: general household help, nursemaid or 'yaya', cook, gardener, or laundry person, but shall exclude any person who performs domestic work only occasionally or sporadically and not on an occupational basis.

The term shall not include children who are under foster family arrangement, and are provided access to education and given an allowance incidental to education, i.e. 'baon', transportation, school projects and school activities."

"Employer refers to any person who engages and controls the services of a domestic worker and is party to the employment contract."

II. Competency-Based Pay Scheme: Conceptual Framework

- a. A competency based pay scheme for domestic workers is a compensation system that rewards domestic workers with additional pay in exchange for formal certification of the domestic worker's mastery of skills, knowledge and/or competencies. This compensation system considers the level and coverage of certification of competencies of domestic workers and grants domestic workers with additional pay for being certified on the elective competencies of the qualification.

Competency pertains to: a) the application of knowledge, skills and attitudes required to complete a work activity in a range of contexts and environment to the standard expected in the workplace; or b) the possession and application of
