2017 PRODUCTIVITY OLYMPICS

45 National Winners and counting...

2017 Productivity Olympics

1. What is the PRODUCTIVITY OLYMPICS?

It is a biennial national competition for best productivity improvement programs of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) nationwide.

2. Who are its ORGANIZERS?

It is organized by the National Wages and Productivity Commission (NWPC), an attached agency of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), in coordination with its 17 Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Boards (RTWPBs).

3. What are its OBJECTIVES?

- Intensify national awareness and commitment to quality and productivity;
- Encourage MSMEs to adopt productivity improvement programs/practices; and
- Showcase best productivity improvement programs.

4. WHO may JOIN?

All MSMEs in the private sector that :

- Are duly registered with the appropriate government agency, such as the DTI, SEC, CDA, and others;
- Have a productivity improvement program existing for at least 2 years preferably under the NWPC's I.S.T.I.V productivity program;
- Is compliant with the labor standards; and
- Have never been a recipient of Productivity Olympics award at the national level.

5. What are the CATEGORIES?

MSMEs in the following sectors: AGRIBUSINESS, SERVICE, and INDUSTRY.

6. What are the CRITERIA?

I. BUSINESS EXCELLENCE	50%
▪ Total Productivity	25%
▪ Expansion and Growth	20%
▪ Awards and Recognition	5%
II. RESOURCE MANAGEMENT	50%
▪ People	35%
▪ Systems, Technology and Green	15%
TOTAL	100%

7. What are the MECHANICS for the evaluation and selection of winners?

- Interested MSME shall secure a nomination form from the nearest RTWPBs office. Once completed, the nomination form together with PO form profile of the establishment will be submitted to the RTWPBs office.
- The Regional Screening Committee (RSC) composed of the members of the RTWPBs and a quality and productivity champion in the region shall evaluate MSME applicants according to the prescribed criteria. It shall select and award the regional winners who will represent the region at the national level
- The National Screening Committee (NSC) composed of representatives from the workers, management and government sector plus a productivity and quality specialist.
- The National Judging Panel (NJP) which is tripartite in composition with the DOLE Secretary as the head, and a productivity and quality specialist shall select national winners from the list of national finalists.

8. What are the AWARDS and INCENTIVES for the national winners?

- Trophy;
- Cash Award;
- Use of Productivity Olympics Logo for publicity purposes for three consecutive years (2017-2020);
- Priority endorsement to other training programs and services of the NWPC/RTWPBs and DOLE agencies; and
- Qualify for the DOLE-ICP Award

9. When is the LAST DAY of submission?

The last day of submission of the nomination forms is on 30 May 2017. For details/inquiries, contact NWPC at telephone numbers 527-8011 or 527-5519, or visit the nearest RTWPBs office in your area.

Awarding shall be in October, in celebration of the "National Quality and Productivity Month".
